

Bellfield Transition Tasks

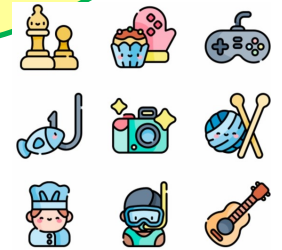

Create a double page all about you and your family.

Think about something you really like and create a poster about it for your new teacher.

Create a Coat of Arms of things important to you.

Think about what you would like to achieve this year and record them in a way that will inspire you.

Design a poster for your new classroom that shows the rules that are important to your class.