I can innovate a poem using descriptive language.

Look at the verse below taken from a poem about a train. Improve each line by changing it to include figurative language.

The train is full of passengers,

Looking out a window,

The picture changes all the time,

Green grass comes and goes,

Tall buildings appear,

What snapshot will you see?